Skills

Account management, creative and art director. Responsive communicator. Strong work ethic. Enthusiastic collaborator.

Elmer Bancud is a creative/art director and media designer with disciplines in print, interactive and motion graphics. Elmer has studied at Minneapolis College of Art and Design and earned his Graphic Design degree at Brown College (MPLS, MN) in 1995. Elmer gained creative experience as a junior Art Director at Serino Coyne Inc., a NYC ad agency focused on Broadway theatrical productions. Accounts included Cats, Bring in Da Noise and Phantom of the Opera.

Prior to Serino Coyne, Elmer has held a Design Director position at the Knitting Factory NYC. Roles performed at this known jazz club and record label include creative and art director, design director and curator for the in-house art gallery. Designs include print ads, one sheets, recording artist CD designs and in-club identity.

Moved back to the westcoast in 1999, Elmer embraced the interactive world and held art director positions at Emerald Solutions, Zcom, Olive Studios, and Egghead.com. These positions provided deep multimedia experience with a focus on concepting and development of dynamic UI design, branded experiences and usability.

As a creative principal at Funnelbox - a film and video production group, designing for 2d, 3d animation and motion graphics for web, broadcast and DVD environments was put in play.

For the past 13 years Elmer has been directing his own studio for direct clients, agencies and marketing departments developing brands, concepts, marketing materials, mood boards, trend scouting, interactive products, and identity materials.

Clients include:

PICA, SIMNSA Health Care, Mallory Hotel, Boeing, Subway, Singapore Airlines, Haglund Kelley Law, Campaign for Mayor Tom Potter, Celestial Seasonings, Cargo Inc., Hathaway Dinwiddie, Olivia Travel, Nike, Columbia Sportswear.

Elmer stays involved in the community as a former board member of the Portland chapter of the AIGA. He has taught interactive design at Portland Community College, hosted a weekly radio program on Portland radio KBOO for seven years and coached youths in basketball leagues for Brooklyn, NY and Portland, ORE.
